Labor Day is a federal holiday in the United States celebrated on the first Monday in September in any given year to honor and recognize the American labor movement and the works and contributions of laborers to the development and achievements of the United States.

The meaning behind gold Star is an Honor no one wants: A Gold Star Family is the immediate family member(s) of a fallen service member who died while serving in a time of conflict.

A gold star is placed over the blue star on a Blue stat service flag so that the blue forms a border and creates GOLDSTAR Service Flag. The U.S. Department of Defense also issues Gold Stars lapel pins to immediate family members of fallen service members.

Since June 23rd, 1936, after the passage of a joint congressional resolution, our nation has recognized the last Sunday of September as Gold Star Family Day.

National POW/MIA Recognition Day

Each year since 1989, a presidential proclamation brings the nation together to remember and honor the members of Armed Forces who remain missing in action or are prisoners of war. The day serves as a call to action, reminding the nation to rededicate our efforts. We're responsible for brining our patriots home and for caring for our Military families awaiting word of their loved ones.

Columbus Day 2021 is an annual federal American holiday that occurs on the second Monday in October each year. Day commemorates the arrival of Christopher Columbus in the Americas and his discovery of America on October 12,1492.

“There is much more to being a patriot and a citizen than reciting the pledge or raising a flag”
